

Music from a Midsummer Night's Dream

The Dream

One dream, one sight,
One magical night,
When nothing is quite as it seems.
A world that sleeps
With secrets it keeps
Can only be seen in your dreams.

How can a time that's far away
Suddenly seem so near?
How can a rhyme from yesterday
Suddenly seem so clear?

Should you believe in a dream in the night?
Open your eyes and you'll see.
Could you believe in a love at first sight?
Or a dream – in the night...

The Dream (finale)

One dream, one sight,
One magical night,
When nothing is quite as it seems.
A world that sleeps
With secrets it keeps
Can only be seen in your dreams.

How can a time that's far away
Suddenly seem so near?
How can a rhyme from yesterday
Suddenly seem so clear?

Did you believe in a dream in the night?
Open your eyes - did you see?
Did you believe in a love at first sight?
They're the Dreams of a Midsummer Night.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT!
