About the Rights Respecting Schools Award

Unicef works with schools in the UK to create safe and inspiring places to learn, where children are respected, their talents are nurtured and they are able to thrive. Our Rights Respecting Schools Award embeds these values in daily school life and gives ALL children at GJS the best chance to lead happy, healthy lives and to be responsible, active citizens

WE ARE A UNICEF GOLD
RIGHTS RESPECTING SCHOOL

Children's rights are learned, understood and lived in this school.

ANNE FRANK

The Diary of a Young Girl

With an introduction by Eleanor Roosevelt

What do you think she meant
when she said “memories
mean more to me than dresses?”

How do you think Anne managed to stay hopeful
about the future?

What things would
you pack?
Why?

The Holocaust is the name given to the murder of over 6 million people by the Nazis during World War Two. 1.5 million were under 18.

Holocaust Memorial Day is a day on which we can remember all the victim, and make sure it doesn't happen again.

It also commemorates the victims of more atrocities around the world.
