Martin Luther-King day is celebrated every year on the third Monday in January.

Today is Martin Luther King Day.

Today we are going to hear about a special man who had a dream.

90 years ago a boy was born in this house.

He liked to play baseball and football. He liked riding his bike. He played with kites and model planes.

There were no white children at his school. The law said that children with different skin colours could not go to the same school.

He was a very clever boy and he worked really hard at school. He went to college when he was only 15 years old.

Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga

The boy wanted to be a minister in the church. He wanted to make the lives of black people better because some were treated very badly. He worked hard and learned about people who tried to change things in a peaceful way. He did not want to get angry and fight.

One day he met a lady called Coretta. She was a singer. They got married and had 4 children. Coretta helped her husband with his work.

He organised peaceful marches to help people be kinder and fairer to each other.

He once gave a famous speech in Washington.

He talked about his dream.
Thousands of people listened to him speak.

"I HAVE A DREAM"

"I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.'"

'I have a dream that one day little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as brothers and sisters.'

'I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.'

Many people listened to him talking and agreed with him.

He changed many people's minds and new laws were made that were fairer to black people.

When he died, people all over the world were very sad. He was shot and killed aged 39 on 4th April 1968

His work was so important that to honour him and remember him every year in America there is a special day called...

'Martin Luther King Day'.
Stevie Wonder wrote a special song about him called
'Happy Birthday'.

*"Darkness cannot drive out darkness;
only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that".*
